

Livestock Brand Application

A livestock brand should be designed so that it can be easily read and applied. A complicated or intricate brand will blotch easily or be too large. Remember: simple brands are best! Hip brands are an industry preference. Once you have submitted your choice(s) for a livestock brand, this office will compare them to the brands already recorded. Washington does not record duplicate or similar brands. If all your choices are taken, we will send you some alternative choices by mail.

Make sure that each person having actual ownership is listed on the application. You may record under individual(s) names, a Partnership, or Corporation that is filed with the Secretary of State's Office. You may not record as, for example, "Jones & Sons".

When recording a brand to a company, corporation, or partnership, please furnish a list of officers and people authorized to sign bills of sale when selling livestock (in space provided below). If there is more than one owner, the word "and" means all persons sign bills of sale, while the word "or" means any one person may sign such bills. Do not use the phrase "and/or".
