Agriculture and food processing provide over 164,000 jobs in Washington.

- 35,793 farms (2017)
- Nearly 900 organic farms (2017)
- 67% of farms are less than 50 acres (2017)
- Nearly 27,000 female farmers
- Food processing generated more than $20.4 billion in revenues (2017 WA Dept. of Revenue)
- 89% of Washington’s farms are small farms – selling less than $250,000 per year.
- 82% of Washington farms are less than 180 acres.
- Washington farmers produce over 300 different commodities.
  - Apples are not only Washington’s top crop, they represent 23% of the total value of ag production in the state.

Top 10 Commodities in Washington*

1. APPLES: $2.19 billion
2. MILK: $1.13 billion
3. WHEAT: $645 million
4. POTATOES: $788 million
5. CATTLE: $652 million
6. HAY: $519 million
7. HOPS: $426 million
8. CHERRIES: $361 million
9. GRAPE: $241 million
10. EGGS: $141 million

Washington State Department of Agriculture | 1111 Washington st SE, Olympia, WA 98504-2560 | AGR.WA.GOV