The WSDA Food Assistance Resiliency Grants Program, formerly named the Flexible Funding Grants Program, was funded through the Washington State Legislature to build resiliency in the hunger relief system. This grant was open to all eligible hunger relief agencies, Tribes, and tribal organizations statewide, whether or not they were previously contracted with WSDA to distribute food assistance.

Visit agr.wa.gov/grants for more information on this and future grant opportunities.

AWARDED APPLICATIONS BY REGION

- Peninsula/Coastal: 7
- North Puget Sound: 47
- Northwest: 9
- Northeast: 9
- North Central: award returned
- North Puget Sound: 47
- South Puget Sound: 14
- South Central: 5
- Southwest: 5
- Southeast: 4

Projects funded include:

- Culturally-relevant foods
- Staffing, living wages
- Gleaning program expansion
- Warehouse equipment
- Facility renovations
- Coolers, freezers
- And more...

AWARDED ORGANIZATIONS BY TYPE

- Tribes, tribal organizations: 3
- *Currently contracted agencies: 27
- Agencies not currently contracted: 22

* Currently contracted agencies are hunger relief organizations, Tribes, and tribal organizations that participate in WSDA Food Assistance programs. Agencies not currently contracted are organizations not currently participating in WSDA Food Assistance programs.