Is Storage Tank Used for Pesticide? (WAC 16-229)

- Is Storage Volume Larger than 500 Gallons? (Single or Aggregate)
  - Yes: Secondary Containment Rules Do Not Apply
  - No: Is Storage Tank Placed in Permanent Location?
    - Yes: Storage Requires Secondary Containment
    - No: Is the Temporary Storage Container Used to Store Fumigant?
      - Yes: Tank can be Placed In-Field, if: <10,000 Gallons for 14 Days Within any Six (6) Month Period
      - No: Tank can be Placed In-Field, if: <2,500 Gallons for 14 Days Within any Six (6) Month Period

Temporary Field Storage Containers Must Be Marked With:
- Name of Owner
- I.D. Number
- NFPA diamond

Is Storage Tank Used for Fertilizer? (WAC 16-201)

- Is Storage Larger than 500 Gallons?
  - Yes: Secondary Containment Rules Do Not Apply
  - No: Is Storage Tank Placed in Permanent Location?
    - Yes: Storage Requires Secondary Containment
    - No: Tank can be Placed In-Field (Temporary Field Storage), if: <10,000 Gallons for 21 Days Within any Six (6) Month Period

An application tank that is functionally connected to and dedicated solely for use with a chemigation or fertigation operation is exempt from the Secondary and Operational Area Containment Rules.